Brazil UFO: Real – Burgeoning – Not Going Away…

Posted by Lynn Marzulli on October 28, 2009

There’s a lot that is going on and so much to Blog about.

A bomb went off in Pakistan killing scores of people as that nation continues to fight for its existence. The Taliban, that embraces a radical form of Islam – think Sharia law – seems to have a penchant for killing anyone including women and children. Where is the international outcry? If the Israeli’s did this it would make front page news and decried by governments all over the world. How can the Taliban get away with this? Double standard?

Larry David, a “comedian” urinated on the face of a painting of Jesus – This is a hate crime plain and simple. Hey Larry – you are a bore, and a gutter snipe who engages in vituperative antics to get a rise and some publicity. Time to boycott anything this idiot does.

A rocket has been fired from Lebanon and landed in Israel. No one was injured and the Israeli’s responded with mortar fire. Is this the first salvo of something greater?

Here's a story with a link to a video – <http://www.allnewsweb.com/page9299791.php> - that shows a UFO that according to eyewitnesses and a Brazilian camera crew that filmed it, hovered for about one and a half hours. I viewed the film and my feeling is that it is a UFO. It's certainly unidentified. Is it the real thing? You be the judge. One thing is for certain, go back twenty years and films like this didn't exist. What we are seeing is a burgeoning of the UFO phenomena. UFOs are appearing with greater frequency all over the planet. Sightings are seen by thousands of people and many are recorded by multiple witnesses with cameras. Yesterday we had a comment that re-posted Dr. Stephen Greer's appeal to the United States government to release, what up until now have been top-secret documents concerning the UFO phenomena. It would appear to me that we are getting closer than anyone can imagine to the revealing of the so-called extraterrestrial presence, and that at some point in the near future the United States is going to release the documents combined with an announcement that the UFO phenomena is real.

We had a lot of comments yesterday and some remarks about the Nephilim. Let me say that Fallen angels are not sexless. We are told in Genesis that the Sons of God saw the daughters of men. The question is this, who are the Sons of God? I have explored this theme extensively in my book Politics, Prophecy and the Supernatural. Here's a portion from that book.

As further confirmation of this view (Angels cohabiting with the women of earth), we have the fact that the "offspring" of the union of the "Sons of God" and the "Daughters of Men," were a race of giants, mighty men, men of renown (Gen 6:4). Now the bodily descendants of men have married ungodly women, but their offspring have never been such monstrosities as the offspring of the "Sons of God" and the "Daughters of Men" of Noah's day; therefore, that union must have been of an unnatural character as is evidenced by the term "Strange Flesh." God could not permit such an abnormal race as the "progeny" of the Union of angels and human beings to exist on the earth, so the outcome of this "Invasion" of the earth by the "Denizens of the Air" was the Flood, by which the contour and elevation of the antediluvian Earth were changed, thus wiping out the Garden of Eden and diminishing the length of human life on earth.
