(View Interview Notes)

Born in Iran, and now based in Canada, Ali Siadatan has been involved in a life long search into spirituality. After examining many perspectives his heart was opened to the gospel and he become a disciple of the Nazarene. He feels that the hand that has guided him through life has led him into the examination of the relationship that exists between angels and UFOs.

Ali is the director of the critically acclaimed file UFOs Angels and Gods, and you can get more information at ThinkAgainProductions.com
